OFFICE WAS RIGHTFULLY HIS.

A. B. Little Wins His Contest Against J. M. Montgomery.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

Texarkana, Tex., Dec. 21.—The case of A.

B. Little against J. M. Montgomery was decided in the District Court of Miller County, Arkansas, in Texarkana to-day, Little being the victor.

At the recent election Little ran for the newly-created office of County Clerk in Miller County, and although his candidacy was ahead of the treation of the said office, he was indorsed by all the machineries of the county as an admitted candidate, running subject to the result of the Census Bureau, which was expected to find the necessary number of voters in the county to fundify the establishment of such an office. When that result was reached and when Little went before the Governor, supported by all of these influences, he was turned down and Colonel L M. Measurement. of these influences, he was turned sown and Colonel J. M. Montgomery appointed in his stead. Little at once went to court with his claim and employed the best lawyers in the county to defend him.

At the trial to-day Judge Conway felt disqualified to sit more the case by reach disqualified to sit upon the case, by reason of the personal attitude he held toward both of the contestants, and Judge W. P. Freedell of Locksburg, Ark., was brought down to try the case. After a long fight, involving many delicate points of law end politics, a verdict was given in favor of Little and the defendants took an appeal.

TO GO ON LECTURE PLATFORM. Man Convicted of Embezzlement

Has Lofty Aspirations.

Chicago, I.I., Dec. 21.—Former Banker Edward S. Dreyer, convicted of the embezzlement of £16,000 of the funds of the West Park Board while he was treasurer of the board, and who has been fighting imprisonment in the courts for over two years, will, it is announced, go on the lecture platform as soon as he is released on bail.

When his case reaches the United States Supreme Court on the writt of error granted by Justice Boggs of the Illinois Supreme Court, Mr. Dreyer expects to be released from the county jail immediately and will then take the platform to lecture, as he expresses it, "In the cause of justice and the humane enforcement of the laws.
